OLD BUSINESS

Jackpot Youth Show

There is approximately $1800.00 in the Kootenai County Show account. Jacqui and Shelley will handle the check-in on Saturday morning including t-shirts and numbers. We still need to find a source for the numbers. Bev will check with her father Ken to see if he is available to announce. David Shockey will be the ring steward. Cloverdale Lowlines is sponsoring the donuts and coffee for Saturday morning. Shelley will create a banner to use as a backdrop for photos that has all the sponsor's logos on it. There will be a photographer. 4-H groups will hopefully handle the parking and Friday night check-ins at the Fairgrounds. Tunk Mountain Ranch will sponsor the Beef for lunch. Weaver is sending products.

Walters Land and Cattle is sponsoring $500.00 towards the Lowline Influenced Steer class. There is also $1000.00 being given from the local Livestock Boosters. Super 1 Foods in Hayden is donating. There will be no fitting clinic. There will be door prizes to draw as well. At this point there are 35 entries for the show.

Northwest Classic/Power Bull Battle

The judge for the Bull Battle is Addy Davis from Papa Angus Ranch. Jacqui is working on getting times arranged with Wayne for the Bull Battle on Saturday and the Sunday show. The WSLA annual meeting will be held in the outside covered area at 9:00 am on Saturday. We have the room for the Breeders Reception at no charge since we are using the Quality Inn as our host hotel. Sponsorship for the Classic will be $125.00 for Supreme, $75.00 for Grand Champion, and $50.00 for Reserve.

NEW BUSINESS

No new business.
